

I oppose proposals that make it easier for large corporations to increase their monopolistic domination of broadcast media. Ownership restrictions should not be loosened. Diversity of voices are crucial to our culture and to our democracy. Corporate monopolists should be not be allowed to snuff these voices out.